NEW NILES LEASE FOR POSTOFFICE UNDECIDED

W. A. Hudson, United States post office inspector, was in Niles Saturday afternoon, conducting an investigation in connection with the lease for the Niles post office.

The lease for the present site of the postoffice expired recently and there have been rumors the office will be moved to another location, but nothing definite has been settled yet. The postoffice advertised some time ago for bids on a location but a new lease has yet to be selected, according to Hudson.

Because of the narrowness of First street in the postoffice block, there has been sentiment expressed that the Niles mail headquarters should be moved to other parts, but with the adoption of parallel parking in this section, it is thought much will have been done to relieve the congested traffic situation.

Centerville Autopsy Reveals Dead Man With Fractured Skull

The body of a man thought to have been murdered was found Friday on the beach at the Alameda county end of the Dumbarton bridge by A. C. Barlow and H. W. Costa, both of Newark.

Authorities are investigating the murder theory as the result of a coroner's autopsy held Saturday afternoon in Centerville when it was revealed the man, identified as A. McMillan, 48, of San Francisco, had a fractured skull supposedly inflicted by some heavy instrument. Dr. O. D. Hamlin, county autopsy surgeon, was in charge of the autopsy held at the Botelho funeral parlors.

The body which weighed approximately 250 pounds was badly decomposed when found, but was identified as that of McMillan who has been missing since April 28.

Officials base the murder theory on the statement by Mcmillan's partner in a South San Francisco poolhall, Frank Pretti, that McMillan was a heavy winner at the Belmont dog races on the day he was last seen alive. The dead man's watch and money were missing when the body was found, leading investigators to believe he was struck on the head by some heavy instrument and robbed, and his body thrown off the bridge.

A coroner's inquest with Deputy Coroner F. F. Botelho in charge is planned for probably Saturday or the first of next week.

The meeting was held in Ship style with Skipper Leslie Hiller and Coxswains L. Pine and D. Fuller in charge. SCHOOL MINSTREL SHOW RESULTS IN SUCCESS

The minstrel show "Land O' Cotton" presented by the Niles grammar school in the Veterans' Memorial building at Niles Friday night resulted in huge success. A large and attentive audience filled the hall, and enough money was realized that it was made possible for the school to buy a small radio. The radio will be purchased at the beginning of the school year in the fall.

NOTED ARTISTS TO APPEAR IN NILES DANCING RECITAL

Toyon Branch Sponsors Affair for Swimming Pool Benefit

Residents of Washington township who enjoy good music are offered an opportunity rarely available anywhere except in metropolitan centers, the three artists appearing at the Veterans' Memorial Hall Saturday evening at 8 p. m., supplementing the recital of the piano and dancing classes of The Williamson School being among the most noted in the San Francisco bay section—Mrs. Wallace Wheaton Briggs, dramatic exponent of operalogue, Miss Florence Sherman Briggs, 'cellist, and Harry Saltz, pianist.

Through the generosity of these great artists, the program will be of interest not only to friends and parents of the children participating but to music lovers in general. Proceeds of the affair will go toward the swimming fund of the Washington Union high school. Members of the Toyon Branch of the Children's Hospital will act as patronesses of the evening and will be assisted by a committee from the Legion Auxiliary.

The auxiliary will launch its poppy drive at this time for the benefit of the disabled veterans. These poppies are sold for any sum the buyer may wish to give from five cents up.

The piano recital is given under the direction of Mrs. Claire Baker Holmes, of Mills College, instructor; and the dancing classes have been taught this past year by Mrs. Genevieve Williamson, of San Francisco.

Mrs. Briggs will give a brief commentary on the meaning of various dances, their history, etc., and her remarks will be illustrated

Four Resignations To Be Filled at June Board Meet

With the exception of four members who have tendered their resignations, the Washington Union high school faculty will be the same for the 1932-33 school session as the past year, it was decided at the last meeting of the board of trustees when contracts were offered.

Those who have resigned from the faculty this year are John E. Kimber, music instructor; Miss Ada J. Roberts, social science teacher; Miss Beatrice Taylor, social science teacher; and Robert Moore, English instructor. Their successors will be named at the meeting of the board to be held on June 6.

There probably will be one less member of the faculty next year, according to A. J. Rathbone, principal. The teaching of two subjects will be abandoned next year, according to present plans. These are journalism and the art department.

The following have been offered their contracts again, and will be on hand when school opens in the fall:

A. J. Rathbone, principal; J. V. Goold, vice-principal; Miss E. Marie Sandholt, geography and mathematics; W. E. Gravestock, economics and history, debate coach; Miss Aubrey Nicely, English and dramatics coach; Miss Grace Knoles, English; Miss Lorena Wright, languages; J. B. Hill, mathematics; Barton L. Webb, sciences; William Mette, shop instructor; H. M. Kibby shop instructor; Mrs. Josephine Morris, home making department; Viggo Solveson, commercial subjects; Mrs. Grace Jackson; commercial subjects; Jess Regli, boys' physical education director and athletics coach; Miss Iva Liston, girls' physical education instructor; Mrs. W. L. Wright, librarian.

MISSION MARKER PLANS SHOW PROGRESS

To confer on plans being made for the erection of a suitable marker at the old mission in Mission San Jose, Professor and Mrs. N. S. Morley, of the University of California, called on Mrs. J. R. Whipple at Niles Sunday. Mrs. Whipple is chairman of the Washington township committee whose members are working with state chapters of the American Daughters of the Revolution and other bodies in an effort to obtain a monument for the mission, which has a colorful historical background.

Mrs. Morley is regent of the John Ruthledge chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution at Berkeley and is playing a prominent part in the drive to secure funds for the marker.

Two sculpters have already visited the mission for the purpose of obtaining an idea of monuments which they will submit when the call for bids on markers is issued.

TREE SCRAWLS RECALL DAYS OF SPANIARDS

The hieroglyphics of the early Egyptian pyramids and the scrawls found in the ruins of Indian villages of Mexico have nothing on Niles Canyon, it was revealed by a young maple tree cut recently during the process of re-routing the canyon road at Farwell station.

About two feet in diameter, the tree was being cut into stove weed when the heart, less than five inches in diameter, showed crudely carved initials and scars from branding irons.

A load of the wood was purchased by Matt Sullivan who discovered several of the strange scrawls and brands. Among the initials found were "O. S.," "C. S.," "O. N. T.," "S. S.," and "C. W."

Because of the slow growth of maple trees and the fact that the symbols were covered with approximately ten inches of sound wood, it is thought they probably were cut by Spaniards in the days when this section was first being settled.

NEW SCOUT LEADER IS INTRODUCED TO SCOUTING GROUP

Township Council Organization Details Are Explained

Twenty-seven members were present at the regular meeting of the Washington township scouters held in the Odd Fellows hall, Irvington, Monday night, at which Irving P. Beesley, new field scout executive for southern Alameda county, was introduced to the organization. Beesley has taken the place left vacant by the recent resignation of H. L. Hopkins.

Plans for a dance to be given by the Washington township post of the American Legion for the benefit of the township scout troops were related to the group by Frank Vargas, post commander.

After regular business had been transacted, H. J. Bemis, council executive, explained the organization of the district committee. This group is headed by Mr. J. E. Townsend as president, and F. V. Jones, vice-president; and with sub-committees on camping leadership and training, finance, field organization, court of honor, and public relations, form the committee. It will function as a miniature council in Washington township, handling scouting problems and activities, with the Oakland Area council providing any needed assistance. The chairman also will become a member of the Oakland Area board of directors, thus giving the township a voice in the general program for the entire territory.

In addition to those named the committee is composed of the the following: I. P. Beesley, secretary; camp committee, O. W. Ebright, Niles, chairman; E. E. Elliott, Irvington; H. F. Harrold.

BACK TO GOOD TIMES SPIRIT PREVAILS AT NILES CHAMBER MEET

NILES SCOUTS TO ENTER ANNUAL FIELD DAY MEET

Large Number Will Compete Saturday In Oakland

Over 400 Boy Scouts from southern Alameda county, including the two scout troops of Niles will represent this area next Saturday, May 21, in the annual field day competition conducted by the Oakland Area Council, Boy Scouts of America.

The field day, to be held from 10:00 a. m. to 3:30 p. m., will draw close to 3000 Boy Scouts into competition on the Oakland high school athletic field in one of the most spectacular Scouting demonstrations ever staged locally, Irving P. Beesley, Scout field executive, revealed.

San Leandro Troop 7, Hayward Troop 5, and Livermore Troop 1 will enter the competition as defending champions of honors won in the 1931 meet, while the other troops from this area will also compete.

Events scheduled for the field day require high skill in various scouting techniques learned by Boy Scouts, Beesley said. Listed events include races between patrols of Scouts in making fire without matches, both by the friction and flint and steel methods, wall scaling by patrols of eight boys, flap jack flipping, knot tying, water boiling, signaling, compass, judging and wood splitting contests.

Niles scouts have been practicing for months in an effort to perfect their skill and bring home prizes issued to the winners.

The field day competition is open free to the public and all friends of Scouting are invited to attend, according to Beesley.

Stress Importance of Optimistic Attitude Toward Business

In connection with the Back to Good Times movement being observed throughout California this week, the Monday meeting of the Niles Chamber of Commerce was devoted to hearing inspiring addresses on the subject by various members of the civic body.

Stressing the psychological value of an optimistic attitude in regard to the present so-called depression and deploring the prevailing pessimistic outlook on present conditions, all speakers voiced the opinion that times are really not as bad as most people would believe and that a return to a better era is in the offing.

Pointing out the various periods of depression the United States has passed successfully through during its past history, E. D. Bristow, principal of the Niles grammar school, emphasized the necessity of maintaining faith in business, in our governmental institutions and above all in ourselves and to "carry on." He said a valuable lesson in faith could be gained from the study of the struggles the pioneers of the country passed through before the present United States were established. He predicted that instead of mechanical wizards arising to better economic conditions as has been largely the case in the past, economic wizards will rise in the future with

According to Veit, more than 10,000 legionaires and their families will motor to the Veterans Home as guests of the inmates and officials. A free barbecue will be served at noon to be followed by band concerts, a dance, baseball game and drum corps contests.

Half rates will be extended all legionaires over the Carquinez Toll bridge.

There are some 1100 war veterans residing at the home which is maintained by the State of California. Of this number, more than 600 are veterans of the World war. The inmates have their own American Legion post.

Before starting on a long trip, be sure that your car is thoroughly lubricated.

Dublin Man Is Killed as Car Hits Road Bank

Funeral Services Conducted in Hayward Chapel

Funeral services were conducted in Hayward last week for George D. Rose, of Dublin, who was killed in an auto accident on the Dublin Canyon road recently.

Rose was raised in Dublin and was well known in Pleasanton, as he was a prominent Dublin rancher. Rose was twenty-six years of age and was unmarried.

His body was found beside his auto, which had struck the bank with such force that it had overturned. He was taken to a Hayward hospital and died shortly after arriving there. It was said that he suffered a fractured skull, broken back, and ruptures of several internal organs.

Officers Norman G. Vadnais, Tony Rose and Clark Gill, of the State Highway Patrol, and Inspector George Henningsen could find no trace of Rose's car being hit by another auto. It is thought that probably the mechanism of the car went wrong in such a way as to throw the car out of control.

Rose was the foster son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DeAvilla, of Dublin.

Alertness Is Stressed For Safety In Driving

Dry smooth road surfaces, coupled with fine weather yield a higher percentage of motor vehicle accidents than do slippery roads and poor visibility, according to Mrs. J. R. Whipple, Niles representative of the Street and Highway Safety Committee of the California State Chamber of Commerce, which statement is based upon recent tabulations of traffic mishaps.

In explaining this paradox, Mrs. J. R. Whipple states:—"Traffic is heavier when physical conditions of weather and road are favorable. The motorist who accepts the challenge of wet roads and poor visibility to handle his car more carefully, as a rule, fails to recognize the hazard of congested traffic.

"Alertness is the first demand of safe driving in heavy traffic. Dangerous blunders, such as driving too fast are avoided when the motorist is alert. Being alert, he will not be lured into that worst of heavy traffic temptations, to get ahead of everyone else.

"Alertness is the remedy for another of the worst pitfalls which trap the unwary on the heavily traveled highway, that of driving too close together at a high rate of speed. It is not an uncommon sight to see cars traveling at 40 miles an hour spaced ten and fifteen fifteen feet apart. Many foolishly imagine that modern brakes make this feasible. The facts declare otherwise. They show that at 40 miles an hour a vehicle is traveling fifty-eight feet per second. The reaction time of the average driver is said to be one second; that is, it requires that interval for him to get his brakes into action at a sign of danger. The number of rear-end collisions which occur under modern conditions of traffic congestion clearly indicate that ten feet clearance is altogether inadequate.

"Safety on the streets and highways of this State demands that motorists temper their response to ideal motoring conditions by realizing that they appeal to everyone else in the same fashion. That feans congestion, and where traffic is heavy, DANGER STALKS."

ENTERTAINING EVENING IS PROMISED DURING SENIOR PRESENTATION

Cast Shows Talent In Its Portrayal Of Roles

A picturesque setting in post war England enlivened by humerous and romantic situations of the most intensely interesting nature will greet the audience at the Washington Union high school Wedesday night, when the senior class makes its last bow in high school life before graduation in presenting the three-act comedy, "Meet the Prince."

This highly entertaining drama is replete with vigor and swift moving action, and when performed by the cast which has been assembled by Miss Aubrey Nicely, high school dramatics coach, cannot fail but stir the emotions and call forth the acclaim of all those witnessing it.

The plot of the drama arises when lanquid, well-poised and beautiful Angela Battersby meets Prince Michael Robolski, of Neo-Slavonia, small buffer state in Middle Europe, while vacationing at Monte Carlo. During his trip to England, he is invited to an informal dinner at the Battersby's fashionable and attractive home near London, where Angela and her father play the perfect host and hostess.

Through someone's contrivance, the Prince finds it necessary to spent the night in the village, much to the great annoyance of Jennifer Bulger, a close friend of Angela. The plot thickens when the Prince succumbs to Jennifer's charms, who apparently feels no affection for him, and does her best to embarrass the guest before his hostess. The dramatic and entertaining highlight of the presentation is found in the actions of the characters before a smooth adjustment to the situation is reached.

As the cast members wish to close their high school careers in the most triumphant and successful fashion, they have concentrated every effort toward giving the public all that is possible from this entertaining spectacle. Under Miss Nicely's capable direction, the practice sessions have revealed a poise and naturalness in the characters that promises the portrayal of the drama to perfection.

The role of Angela Battersby is performed with understanding and feeling by June Witherly. Energy, liveliness, vigor and passion predominates in the manner which Genevieve Hoaglan is playing Jennefer. The part of the romantic, gay, and attractive prince suits John Munger to perfection, while Harriet Lyons in the role of the doting mother, Mrs. Faithfull, cannot fail but convince. The "sweet young thing," Imogene, is played by Eva Rogers with a poise and naturalness that is pleasing.

Other characters are dramatically personified by Gordon Pond, Alma Bettencourt, Howard Blacow, Ed Kettman, and Joe Guardanapo.

TWO CENTERVILLE YOUTHS HELD ON ROBBERY CHARGES

Alleged to Have Held Up Man and Broken Into Home

Frank Sequerria and Joe Vierra, Centerville youths, were arrested late Saturday night by Constable O. W. Ebright, of Niles, on charges of robbery.

The accused pair are said to have broken into the house of Dan Amaral in Centerville Saturday night and stolen a gun, a gold watch, a stick pin and a small sum of money. After this alleged burglary, the two are asserted to have attended the Holy Ghost festival in Mission San Jose, come to Niles for something to eat, and on their way to Centerville passed Amaral's brother-inlaw, Albert McTighe, riding a bicycle on the highway. Turning their machine about they are alleged to have held up McTighe and robbed him of his purse containing forty cents. When the two found the small sum they returned it to the owner.

Constable Ebright was notified and made the arrest at the youths' homes. They were lodged over night in the Niles jail and taken to the Oakland county jail Sunday by Ebright.

Both men were arraigned in the Niles justice court Tuesday afternoon.

Increased
BUYING POWER of the dollar
justifies the return to normal spending

Thoughtful people all over California are returning to normal buying habits—and they are getting some of the greatest values of their lives. Building materials, automobiles, clothing and high grade merchandise of every kind are being sold at temptingly low prices. Now is the time to take full advantage of the increased purchasing power of the dollar, stimulate every line of business, and return the unemployed to their jobs. Even reduced incomes are balanced by corresponding reductions in the prices of nearly all commodities. There is no excuse for not satisfying one's normal needs. Prosperity depends largely upon both banked and expended money. Until idle money circulates freely, unemployment will continue to be with us. The return of good times is strictly up to each one of us. Think it over.

CONTRACTS FOR STREET OILING AT PLEASANTON

Contacting of Property Owners Is First Step of Work

Circulation of contracts for property owners to sign in connection with the Pleasanton street oiling will be begun next week, stated Frank Garatti, Pleasanton street department head, this week.

This action follows close on the heels of the council's final approval of the street oiling project. At the May meeting of the council, a resolution was passed adopting specifications for the work and authorizing the street department to proceed in line with the property owners' contract method of getting such works accomplished.

As soon as exact figures are obtained as to the cost of the oiling the contracts will be circulated among the property owners. Specifications of the work were needed before the exact cost could be determined, and now that such specifications have been determined, the exact figgures was in his hands by the first of this week, Garatti stated.
next week, Garatti stated.

Contracts are then drawn up between each property owner and the contractor doing the oiling. Each contract provides for the payment, by the property owner, of the cost of oiling the half of the street or streets directly adjoining his property. The town will pay for the oiling of street intersections.

Indications are that the cost of the work will not exceed sixteen cents per square yard. Or the cost to the property owner may be figured at approximately fifty cents per front foot. This latter figure will, of course, depend upon the width of the street. The figure given is based upon the street oiling which has already been done in Pleasanton.

Pleasanton Body Plans "Fiesta of Thoroughbreds"

Week-End Carnival Would Be Held Over Fourth of July

The Pleasanton Junior Chamber of Commerce talked over plans for a proposed annual "Fiesta of Thoroughbreds," to be held at the Pleasanton race track on July 4, at a meeting of the chamber held at the Pleasanton City Hall last Thursday evening, according to Andrew Greve, of Pleasanton, president.

If plans go over, it will be the first time Pleasanton has had a similar celebration since the long gone days of racing. According to present plans, the fiesta will be a week-end affair with a carnival, street dancing and a big parade. Pleasanton breeders and jockeys would provide the program at the track.

Pleasanton, the home of the thoroughbreds, would be just the right place for such a celebration. The juniors would not have to go out of town for horses to provide the stunts at the track, as there are a number of prominent horse breeders in this community. The fact that Pleasanton has one of the best race tracks in the country will be a decided advantage in conducting the horse show and races.

Race horses, polo ponies, percherons, show horses, cow ponies, and bucking bronchos would furnish the entertainment. Numerous horses in each of the classes mentioned above can be found in training all year round on the horse farms near Pleasanton.

Don't forget to take along an inner tube patch outfit if you are planning a long trip.

PLEASANTON HOUSE IS DESTROYED BY FLAMES

Damage to Building Is Estimated at $2,500

As the result of a fire, the start of which is unknown, the residence occupied by Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Perry, of Pleasanton, was destroyed last week. The damage to the house, which is owned by Mrs. Caroline Lewis, of Pleasanton is set at $2,500 and is partly covered by insurance. Water and smoke destroyed most of the furniture of the Perry family. Their loss was also partially covered by insurance.

The fire was discovered about 3:50 p. m. by Mrs. M. Nevis, of Pleasanton, who telephoned the alarm to the fire department. With a stiff breeze blowing and the fire well under headway, the firemen fought valiantly and succeeded in preventing the total loss of the building.

Mrs. Perry, who with her mother, Mrs. Mary Souza, of Pleasanton, and Mrs. Nevis, who was visiting with Mrs. Souza, were at home at the time of the fire. Mrs. Perry left the house for a few minutes to attend to an errand, and while she was outside the fire broke out.

Firemen moved the furniture and personal belongings out of the house and the family were taken care of by neighbors for the night.

Poppy Day

Mrs. Edith R. Howarton, American Legion Auxiliary, State poppy chairman, shown with official proclamation from Governor Rolph designating "Poppy Day."

"In Flanders fields the poppies blow,
Between the crosses, row on row—"

On Memorial Day paper replicas of this little red memorial flower will be worn by thousands throughout the state. These symbols of those lives sacrificed and shattered while fighting for the flag will be sold in every community in California on May 27 and 28, by the American Legion Auxiliary.

The sale of the replicas of these poppies, which weave a crimson mantle above the graves of silent soldiers asleep beneath white crosses "over there," enables the Auxiliary to carry on its activities for the welfare of the dependents of disabled and dead veterans.

Need for this service consistently grows heavier each year. Veterans are dying every day and leaving families. Others are breaking down from the results of war injuries. The Auxiliary has a constantly growing task in looking after the welfare of these unfortunate victims of the war and asks a generous public response to the sale of the memorial red poppy on May 27 and 28.

A SHORT, SHORT STORY

Gordon Kent, age twenty-six (months), held up the baby show at the Central States' Fair at Aurora, Illinois, for over an hour. He objected to being disrobed, and it took doctors, nurses and attendants more than sixty precious minutes to examine him. On form and health he was pronounced perfect, but the finicky judges fined him thirty points for "irritability, distractibility and resistance."

Of course there is danger that his "irritability, distrctability and resistance" are infectious and will spread to the other perfect babies who are making the rounds of agricultural fairs with prize steers and strawberry preserves, but there is little likelihood that such reprehensible objection to examination will spoil the smoothness of the annual bathing beauty contest at Atlantic City. The girls are older and know better.

John Mabin, a Pleasanton jockey, left last week for Binghampton, New York, to ride "Sunbow", owned by Willis S. Kilmer, in the eastern race meets during the coming summer.

Mabin has the distinction of being the largest money-winning jockey in the world. That is the total amounts won by horses he has piloted to victory cannot be equaled by the record of any other jockey.

Incidentally, the horse, "Sunbow", holds the same record among race horses. The total amount of the purses won by Sunbow is in excess of three hundred thousand dollars, which is the greatest sum ever won by a single horse. Mabin has also ridden Sunbow to victory in past years and hopes to do better this year.

Simple Recipe Often Enjoyed More Than An Elaborate One

By JOSEPHINE GIBSON
Director, Heinz Food Institute

A WELL PREPARED, but inexpensive and simple recipe is often enjoyed far more than one that is overly elaborate. At this time of the year especially, good substantial foods, skillfully seasoned and attractive in appearance, are welcomed by the homemaker whose task it is to serve nourishing, appealing meals to families coming home cold and hungry.

The dishes suggested below are guaranteed to please every appetite.

Casserole of Pork Chops and Noodles: Cook 2 cups egg noodles in boiling salted water for 8 minutes. Drain. Sprinkle 6 pork chops lightly with salt and pepper and brown in a skillet. Add to noodles, 1 small onion minced, ½ teaspoon salt, ⅓ cup Tomato Ketchup and 1¼ cups water. Put chops in casserole, cover with noodles and sprinkle top with buttered crumbs. Bake at 350°F. for 30 to 40 minutes. A good substantial dish for an every day dinner.

Swiss Steak: Into a thick round steak, pound flour seasoned with salt and pepper. Brown in skillet in beef fat. Place slices of onion on top and sprinkle with chopped green pepper. Combine ½ cup Tomato Ketchup and 1½ cups water and pour over meat. Cover and simmer slowly until tender.

Cuban Eggs: In a skillet, place 1 cup sausage and 2 teaspoons finely chopped onion. Fry for 5 minutes and add 4 tablespoons Tomato Ketchup. Add 6 eggs, beaten well and seasoned with ¾ teaspoon salt and dash of pepper. Stir gently until cooked and serve on buttered toast.

Baked Ham Slices with Potato: On a large slice of cured ham, ½ inch thick, place a one-inch layer of very thinly sliced potatoes. Cover with a similar slice of ham and insert toothpicks to prevent slipping. Sear in a very hot oven (475°F.) until delicately brown. Combine ¼ cup Tomato Ketchup and ½ cup water, and pour over ham. Cover and continue baking in a hot oven (425°F.) about 45 minutes or until tender. Garnish by placing Stuffed Spanish Olives on tops of toothpicks, and with springs of parsley.

Salmon and Corn Patties: Flake a one-pound can of salmon and add 1 cup whole kernel corn, ¼ cup Tomato Ketchup, 3 tablespoons flour, 2 eggs well beaten and 1 teaspoon salt. Drop by heaping tablespoons in a skillet, the bottom of which is well covered with hot fat. Fry until golden brown, turn and brown other side. Serve hot. Garnish with slices of Genuine Dill Pickle and sprigs of parsley.

An Idea That Ought to Start Something

The "Hoarding of Money" is ascribed by many economists as one of the causes of the present business depression. Two cities --- Buffalo and Rochester, N. Y.—decided to jar those idle dollars loose by advising the public, via ADVERTISING, to "Spend now what you will later."

The great success with which their campaigns met is attested to by the fact that other cities are planning to follow suit. Both merchants and the unemployed, all benefit by the idea. Hence, our reason for urging our merchants to advertise.

If every merchant in the township would start immediately advertising worth-while "buys" and keep it up consistently for six months the "depression" would be well on the way to oblivion by the time "winter comes."

Now, as always, the

stands ready to help, advise and encourage the merchants of this district in planning advertising campaigns that will bring results.

THAT the bull moose has to grow a new set of antlers every year? He sheds the old ones between January and February and almost immediately starts to sprout a new set which reach their full growth in the Fall. The moose, by the way, was named such by the Algonquin Indians, a translation of the name meaning "he eats off." The tuft of hair under his chin is known as a bell. The photograph shows a fine specimen of young Canadian bull moose with his antlers full grown.

MORE ON BACK TO GOOD

scientific plans to direct the nation back to permanent prosperous times.

That there is too much talk of depression and not enough optimism in regard to conditions was the belief expressed by H. L. Scott. Rather than "Back to Good Times," he urged the motto "On to Good Times,' explaining that a return to previous days is not wanted, but the realization of something better with assurance of non-recurring depressions. With everyone conducting their business affairs in an optimistic spirit to set an example for the public, he said a great deal would be accomplished toward the return of better times.

Declaring Alameda county and the Salinas valley are the two finest spots in the state, Robert Blacow expressed belief that the people in these sections are particularly fortunate and should not be worried too much about hard times. He pointed out that a heartening note could be obtained from the fact that reading of the two township newspapers revealed very few mortgage foreclosures on business establishments or other property in this community, indicating times are not so bad.

People are worrying too much about something which has never happened, was the thought expressed by Lester Duffy, who maintained that the people are better off now than before the World War when wages were much lower. He voiced the belief that better times are certain to return when the present Consgress balances the budget and adjourns, and insisted that much of the present talk about hard times is due to politicians capitalizing on the coming presidential election. Duffey sounded a warning note against expectations of a spectacular comeback to the booming times which preceded the market crash in 1929.

By way of illustrating that present times are not very bad, W. B. Kirk told of the prevailing wages and business conditions in this community thirty-six years ago, and insisted that people do not know what hard times are at present.

Too much installment buying is one of the chief reasons for the present talk of hard times, according to Ed Rose, who illustrated by quoting some facts concerning his garage business. With people adopting a more conservative policy in buying on credit, Rose foresaw a change for the better in economic conditions.

At the close of the meeting President F. V. Jones stressed the psychological importance of everyone maintaining an optimistic attitude and carrying on with renewed faith in business.

Announcement was made by Supervisor Ralph Richmond that the county engineer and surveyor has decided the strip of property on First street, Niles, from the fire house south to the end of the street, is part of the county road, and that the district attorney is drawing up a resolution to permit the Niles chamber installing a water spinkler and seeding the plot in flowers.

It was also announced that next week's gathering will be featured by an address on the Philippine Islands by Captain Costa, of the United States army, who has spent considerable time in the Philippines and is well acquainted with conditions existing there.

Dublin Man Fined on Charge of Battery

Harry Oxsen and Henry Casterson, both of Dublin, after pleading guilty to a charge of battery in the Pleasanton court of Judge Charles A. Gale recently, were each fined fifty dollars by the court.

The charge was pressed by Virgil Oxsen, brother of Harry, who asserted that the two beat him about the head, causing severe scalp lacerations in a quarrel on the Oxsen ranch two weeks ago.
